Miller Statement on U.S. Department of Education Corinthian College Debt Relief Announcement

Education department announces debt relief due to fraud from defunct for-profit college

(DES MOINES, Iowa) Attorney General Tom Miller today issued the following statement regarding the U.S. Department of Education's announcement on debt relief for students who attended the now-defunct Corinthian Colleges:

"This is a very good approach in dealing with very difficult problems concerning debt relief and fraud.

"This plan allows students a much better and cleaner pathway to get debt relief.

"Many of these students are saddled with tens of thousands of dollars in debt because they were defrauded. This announcement will result in real debt relief for many of these affected students."
